CASE NO. C08-5580BHS

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE
AND TO FILE DISCOVERY
PLAN AND INITIAL DISCLOSURES

24 This matter comes before the Court on Defendants' motion for reconsideration.
25 Dkt. 42. The Court will address two issues: service of the second amended complaint and 26 the joint status report and discovery plan.

27 I. BACKGROUND

28 On September 26, 2008, Plaintiffs filed a complaint. Dkt. 1. On November 10,
2008, Plaintiffs filed a 302-page amended complaint naming nine Defendants. Dkt. 20.
Counsel has filed notices of appearance on behalf of all Defendants except for Ace
Securities Corp. Home Loan Equity Loan Trust Series 2007-WMI ("Ace Trust Series").
See Dkts. 19 and 31. The Court notes that Plaintiffs filed a cover sheet purporting to serve

1 Ace Trust Series with the amended complaint, but did not file a summons naming Ace
2 Trust Series. See Dkt. 12.

3 A. JOINT STATUS REPORT AND DISCOVERY PLAN

4 On October 1, 2008, the Court issued an order regarding initial disclosures, joint 5 status report and early settlement. Dkt. 15. The Court set a January 22, 2009 deadline for 6 filing initial disclosures pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a). Id. The parties
7 were further ordered to provide a joint status report and discovery plan (“JSR”) no later
8 than January 29, 2009. Id. As of the date of this order, no initial disclosures have been 9 filed.

10 On December 10, 2008, the Court granted Defendants’ motion for more definite 11 statement. Dkt. 27. On December 16, 2008, Plaintiffs filed a second amended complaint.
12 Dkt. 28.

13 On January 29, 2009, the parties filed a JSR. Dkt. 29. According to the JSR, as of 14 January 29, 2009, “plaintiffs [were] yet to serve defendants with the summons and second
15 amended complaint pursuant to FRCP 4. Plaintiffs intend to effect compliance with Rule
16 4 within 45 days of submission of the Joint Status Report.” Id. at 2. In addition, the JSR
17 indicates that the parties held a Rule 26 discovery conference, but agreed that no
18 discovery plan was “appropriate” at the time the JSR was filed because Plaintiffs were yet
19 to serve Defendants with the second amended complaint. Id. at 4. Thus, Plaintiffs’
20 counsel conditioned the completion of the discovery plan on serving the second amended
21 complaint on Defendants. As of the date of this order, no discovery plan has been filed.

22 B. SERVICE OF SECOND AMENDED COMPLAINT

23 After Plaintiffs failed to serve Defendants with the second amended complaint for 24 more than 120 days, Defendants filed a motion to dismiss for failure to serve the second
25 amended complaint, pursuant to Rule 4(m), on behalf of all Defendants except for Ace
26 Trust Series. Dkt. 32. Plaintiffs did not file a response to this motion; instead they filed
27 documents purported to constitute affidavits of service. Dkts. 34-40.

1 On May 19, 2009, the Court denied Defendants' motion to dismiss. Dkt. 41. In 2 denying the motion, the Court stated that Plaintiffs had served all Defendants with the 3 second amended complaint. Id. (citing Dkts. 34-40).

4 On May 22, 2009, Defendants filed a motion for reconsideration. Dkt. 42.
5 Defendants argue that Plaintiffs still have not properly served three Defendants with the 6 second amended complaint: Countrywide Bank, FSB, Ace Trust Series, and Ace
7 Securities Corporation.¹ Defendants point out that the document Plaintiffs filed under 8 Dkt. 36 is a duplicate of the affidavit for Countrywide Home Loans, Inc., although the 9 document purports to be an affidavit for Ace Securities Corporation. In their motion for 10 reconsideration, Defendants move the Court to dismiss all claims against these three 11 Defendants without prejudice.

12 On May 27, 2009, the Court issued an order permitting Plaintiffs to address the 13 issues raised in Defendants' motion for reconsideration. Dkt. 45. On May 29, 2009,
14 Plaintiffs filed an affidavit of service stating that the second amended complaint was 15 served on Ace Securities Corporation. Dkt. 46. This document indicated that the 16 complaint was served on April 29, 2009 on the law firm of Thatcher, Proffit & Wood, the 17 "registered agent," located at an address in the state of New York. Id.

18 On June 1, 2009, Plaintiffs filed a response to the Court's May 27, 2009, order.
19 Dkt. 47. Plaintiffs maintain that Ace Securities Corporation has now been served, and that 20 Ace Trust Series has been served "by and through the same entity." Id. at 2. Plaintiffs also 21 state that they "have recently requested clarification from the attorney process service
22 firm to clarify whether both entities [Ace Securities Corporation and Ace Trust Series]
23 were intended to have been served by and through the same entity, and that a correction
24 to a certificate of service reflecting the proper name of the party be effected for proper
25 filing." Id. Finally, "Plaintiffs are presently awaiting a response from an attorney process
26

27 ¹Apparently, Defendants concede that the other six Defendants have been properly
28 served.

1 service relative to the effectuation of service upon Countrywide Bank, FSB, and shall 2 immediately e-file such certificate of service” with the Court when the document is 3 available. Id. at 2.

4 On June 5, 2009, Defendants filed a reply. Dkt. 48. First, Defendants maintain that 5 Ace Securities Corporation is a Delaware corporation, and that its registered agent is 6 listed as the Corporation Trust Company of Wilmington, Delaware. Defendants also 7 maintain that the New York Secretary of State does not list a registered agent for Ace
8 Securities Corporation in New York. Defendants further maintain that the law firm which 9 Plaintiffs claim is the registered agent for Ace Securities Corporation has ceased
10 operations. Second, Defendants maintain that the affidavit of service does not mention
11 Ace Trust Series on the document filed, but rather, Ace Trust Series is mentioned only on 12 the PACER title. Third, Defendants maintain that Countrywide Bank, FSB, has still not 13 been served.

14 II. DISCUSSION

15 The Court will address two issues: service of the second amended complaint and 16 the joint status report and discovery plan.

17 A. SERVICE OF SECOND AMENDED COMPLAINT

18 Plaintiffs apparently do not dispute Defendants’ contention that Federal Rule of 19 Civil Procedure 4(m) governs this dispute. In addition, Plaintiffs represented to 20 Defendants that a discovery plan could not be completed until Defendants were served
21 with the second amended complaint.

22 It appears that Plaintiffs have not properly served Ace Securities Corporation with 23 the second amended complaint. See Dkt. 50 (Exhibit C) (indicating that Ace Securities
24 Corporation does not have a registered agent in New York). In addition, as Defendants
25 point out, Plaintiffs’ “affidavit of service of summons and complaint” filed on May 29,
26 2009, does not mention Ace Trust Series. See Dkt. 46. Finally, Defendants provide 27 evidence that the law firm, Thatcher Proffit & Wood, ceased practicing law in December 28

1 2008. See Dkt. 50, 13-15 (Bloomberg.com article indicating this firm ceased operations).

2 Finally, Plaintiffs have not served Countrywide Bank, FSB.

3 As of the date of this order, 182 days have expired since Plaintiffs filed the second
4 amended complaint. Plaintiffs represent that they cannot proceed further with their action
5 until service has been completed. Plaintiffs are ordered to show cause, if any, why this
6 case should not be dismissed against Defendants Ace Securities Corporation, Ace Trust
7 Series, and Countrywide Bank, FSB.

8 B. DISCOVERY PLAN

9 The Court notes that the parties have not complied with the October 1, 2008, order
10 requiring that the parties file a discovery plan. In addition, no initial disclosures have been 11 filed. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a) (requiring parties to provide initial disclosures); see also 12 Fed R. Civ. P. 26(f)(2) (requiring parties to develop discovery plan during discovery 13 conference). According to the JSR the parties filed, Plaintiffs' counsel conditioned the 14 completion of the discovery plan on his serving of the second amended complaint.

15 The parties are ordered to file an amended JSR which includes a discovery plan no
16 later than July 13, 2009. The parties are further ordered to provide initial disclosures no
17 later than June 26, 2009. The Court notes that it is the Plaintiffs' counsel's responsibility
18 to initiate the communication necessary to prepare the JSR. See Dkt. 15 at 2. Should 19 Plaintiffs' counsel fail to comply with this order, the Court will consider sanctions, to 20 include dismissal of this action for failure to prosecute.

21 III. ORDER

22 Therefore it is hereby ORDERED that

23 Plaintiffs are ordered to show cause, if any, no later than June 24, 2009, why
24 Defendants Ace Securities Corporation, Ace Trust Series, and Countrywide Bank, FSB
25 should not be dismissed for failure to prosecute.

1 It is further ORDERED that the parties provide an amended JSR and file initial
2 disclosures as provided herein.

3 DATED this 17th day of June, 2009.
